INFORMATION & OPTIMIZATION SCIENCES

Index of Volume 23 (2002)

Number 1, January

Y. P. CHU AND C. H. CHEN : Service curve allocation for end-to-end delay requirement	1-18
Y. S. YEH, W. S. LAI AND I. T. CHEN : An N-D cryptoscheme	19-36
T. NAKAI : Optimal liability rules under mutual externalities among multiagents	37-48
G. P. CRESPI : Proper efficiency and vector variational inequalities	49-62
C. H. HSU AND Y. S. YEH : Variant of DES-128, 192, 256	63-86
P. S. CHEN, P. CHU AND K. L. YANG : An efficient algorithm to compute the actual service level at each maintenance facility of a two-echelon inventory system	87-93
G. K. JANSSENS AND A. V. BREEDAM : A simulator for single server queues with a generalized switched poisson input process	95-107
K. V. RAMASWAMY : Lot streaming in open shop	109-116
T. NAKAI : A power index in a simple game with multi-alternatives	117-131
L. Y. OUYANG, B. R. CHUANG AND P. H. CHANG : Lead time reduction models with defective items subject to a service level constraint	133-146
H. W. LIN AND M. S. CHEN : A dynamic optimal investing model for international reserves management	147-155
K. H. HSUEH : Monotonic properties for eigenvector	157-162
T. NAKAI : A generalization of multivariate total positivity of order two with an application to a Bayesian learning procedure	163-176
Y. S. YEH AND C. H. HSU : A homophonic Rijndael	177-184
I. M. STANCU-MINASIAN : Optimality conditions and duality in fractional programming involving semilocally preinvex and related functions	185-201

Number 2, May

K. H. HSUEH : Inventory model with a one-time opportunity to order extra items	203–228
H. C. TANG : A worst-case analysis of the three-machine flow shop scheduling	229–240
M. J. RYAN : Data envelopment analysis, cost efficiency and performance targetting	241–258
T. R. TSAI AND S. J. WU : Fuzzy-weighted estimation in ridge regression analysis	259–271
T. C. CHU AND Y. C. LIN : Improved extensions of the TOPSIS for group decision-making under fuzzy environment	273–286
Y. F. HUANG, K. J. CHUNG AND C. K. HUANG : Bounds on optimal cycle time for the EOQ model with defective items taking account of time value	287–298
N. CROCETTO : A defuzzification method for the localization of the gross errors in the observations	299–312
H. C. TANG : Experimental comparison of heuristics for flow shop scheduling	313–321
H. C. TANG : An experimental analysis for the CGPS algorithm for the three-machine flow shop scheduling with minimum makespan criterion	323–344
C. H. LIN AND Y. S. YEH : Generalized GOST	345–353
S. J. WU : Parameter estimation of the two-parameter exponential distribution under step-stress accelerated test with censoring	355–365
Y. YAMAMOTO AND T. NAKAI : An improvement of the Deegan-Packle index in a voting game	367–376
T. NAKAI : Optimal sales limits in multi-stage bargain sales with shifts of customers	377–384
H. N. CHIU AND H. M. CHEN : A stochastic $(q, r)$ inventory model with manufacturing learning and forgetting effects on replenishment lead times	385–408

Number 3, September

L. J. YEH AND T. S. LAN : Heuristic algorithm to optimize production control and manpower allocation in a CNC machining workstation	409–417
J. G. CHILAS AND C. A. BOTSARIS : The production process of the Hellenic telecommunications organisation: 1978-1998	419–438
J. G. CHILAS : Estimation of cost functions and the “relative efficiency of organization” in tertiary technical education : some evidence from Greece	439–457
C. T. LIN AND C. R. WU : Optimizing location under exchange rate uncertainty : applying real options	459–473
Y. P. CHU, W. C. CHIANG, C. L. LEE AND Y. H. HUANG : Call admission and end-to end delay allocation for fair queueing networks	475–488
C. C. CHIU, Y. S. YEH AND K. M. LIU : A recursively heuristic method for the reliability optimization of a distributed computing system	489–512
Y. H. CHIU AND H. H. LIU : Taiwan bank’s efficiency and productivity growth in technology environment	513–521
M. SAKAGUCHI AND M. KODAMA : An application of dynamic probabilistic inventory models with piecewise cost functions	523–549
C. T. CHANG AND S. J. WU : Economic order quantity and optimal payment time under supplier credit	551–561
S. K. LIANG, C. J. CHAO, K. L. YANG AND P. CHU : On David’s model for the battle of Gibeah	563–569
W. T. YANG AND N. W. KUO : A method of improving readability of Forrester diagram in system dynamics	571–583
C. SANTAGATA : Vibrations mechanics : Atoms, nuclei and resonances	585–619
E. LOUKIS AND G. CHONDROCOUKIS : Factors affecting the computerization of small industrial enterprises	621–640
Book Reviews	641–642
Index of Volume 23 (2002)	643–645
