

Journal of Information & Optimization Sciences

A Journal Devoted to Advances in Information Sciences,
Optimization Sciences and Related Aspects

VOLUME 26 NUMBER 1 JANUARY 2005 ISSN 0252-2667

CONTENTS

M. H. SHIH AND W. P. SUNG : The optimum structural control method – neutral equilibrium mechanism	1–23
W. S. YU : Finite precision optimal controllers design using genetic algorithms	25–47
Y. F. HUANG : Supply chain model for the retailer’s inventory policy under two levels of trade credit	49–61
C. J. KUNG AND H. C. TANG : A new heuristic for second-order multiple recursive random number generator	63–70
M. H. SHU AND B. M. HSU : Sample size determination for estimating process precision and process loss based on multiple samples with designated accuracy ratio	71–91
Y. K. ZHAO : A note of prefix n -primitive words	93–109
L. Y. OUYANG, B. R. CHUANG AND Y. J. LIN : Sampling inspection strategy on continuous review inventory model with a service level constraint	111–122
C. T. LIN, C. W. CHANG AND C. B. CHEN : Grey relational analysis evaluation of digital video recorder	123–133
C. FOUNTAS AND A. VLACHOS : Ant Colonies Optimization (ACO) for the solution of the Vehicle Routing Problem (VRP)	135–142
J. H. LIN, P. LIH AND C. P. CHANG : Loan commitments, asymmetric information and capital regulation : an explanation for the synergy or narrow-banking management	143–163
M. LUO, J. H. LIN AND L. H. WU : Financial contract structures and production decision : an option-based optimization	165–180
T. T. LIN AND I. H. LO : Expected return given uncertain recovery rate and information asymmetry	181–192
C. P. CHIANG : An enhanced formulation and simple heuristic for scheduling jobs on unrelated parallel machines	193–204
G. ARYAL AND S. NADARAJAH : On the skew Laplace distribution	205–217
W. H. KUO : An analytical comparison of inventory costs of JIT and EOQ purchasing with defective products	219–231
M. Y. WU, H. M. WEE AND H. RAU : An integrated production inventory model with shortage for deteriorating item in a supply chain	233–246
